No. AN/I/700/B/Transfer

Dated: 14.07.2023

To

The Officer-in-charge

All the sections in Main Office

All the sub offices under PCDA Bangalore (Through website/WAN)

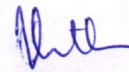

Subject: Transfer policy guidelines for New Recruits.

Of late, it has been observed that several applications/representations are being received from new recruits seeking transfer to their choice stations. In this connection it has been brought out to the notice of all concerned that, as per Hqrs circular dated 18.01.2012 New Recruits are required to serve at the station of their initial posting for a period of 02 years for female officials and 03 years for male officials. On completion of prescribed tenure only they would be eligible to submit their request for transfer to their choice stations through AVL, provided no disciplinary action is contemplated / pending against them.

Further, the individuals while joining this department have undertaken a liability to serve anywhere in India or abroad. As such they are advised NOT to submit their application for transfer to their choice stations before completion of the prescribed tenure mentioned above.

It may be ensured by Officer in charge of all the sections in Main Office and sub offices that the content of this circular has been disseminated to all for strict compliance please, and while forwarding the application, the content of this circular may be strictly adhered to.
