Sub: Submission of No Demand Certificate from AAO, BSO in respect of retired employees who are in occupation of govt. accommodation.

It has been observed that some units/formations are forwarding the claims for terminal benefits of retired employees such as Leave Encashment, etc who are in occupation of govt. accommodation as on the date of superannuation/sought retention of accommodation beyond the date of superannuation. This will results in payment of terminal benefits without recovering the govt. dues for occupation of govt. married accommodation to be charged by BSO. To streamline the procedure, it is requested that

- i) a certificate from the employee stating that he is not in occupation of the govt. married accommodation at the time of superannuation, which is duly certified by the competent authority in the unit/formation, if not occupying the govt. accommodation.
- ii) If the employee is occupying the govt. married accommodation as on the date of superannuation/sought retention beyond the date of superannuation, No Demand Certificate in original from the AAO, BSO concerned is to be forwarded along with the claim for payment of Leave Encashment/any other terminal benefits
